

Department of Economics Application for Travel Funds

The Department of Economics has funding available to assist students in defraying the costs associated with travel to present a paper at a conference. In order to be eligible for these funds you must submit a copy of the letter accepting your paper and material which describes the conference. You must be a dissertator and have this application signed by your major professor. The application should be submitted to the Economics Graduate Office and will be reviewed by the Graduate Committee. You will be notified of approval and the funding level. Please note that you will be reimbursed up to the amount approved. You will need to submit receipts to Dave Romens (7404 Social Sciences) and follow the University guidelines for travel in order to be eligible for reimbursement.
